MINING INDUSTRY.

Resume of Important News of the Week.

RICH MINES OF GLOBE DISTRICT.

Reports of Strikes and Mine Development from Many Districts in the Territory—A Season of Great Activity.

BLACK WARRIOR.

The Black Warrior Copper Co., Amalgamated, are working a force of about 50 men in mining, smelting and building. The concentrator building is about completed and will be ready for the machinery which is expected to arrive shortly. The reverberatory furnace has been turning out some very good blister copper, 99 fine, and the company has also about 100 tons of matte on hand. The tanks are being filled and leaching will be resumed in a few days.

SALE OF COPPER MINES.

Brief mention was made in our last issue of the sale of the Higdon & Haverly mines. The Pinal Copper Mining company, which owns other property in this district, is the purchaser, and the price paid was $20,000 cash. The property transferred comprises the Black Copper and another claim, and a third interest in an adjoining group of six claims in which the company already owned two-thirds. The Black Copper mine has been a large producer, and there is said to be a large amount of ore in sight. The Pinal Copper Mining company is a St. Louis corporation and the Lempis, wealthy brewers, are stockholders in the company. Geo. P. Andrews, who conducted the negotiations for the purchasers, left for St. Louis this morning. Upon his return next month active development work will be begun, and a hoist erected on the Black Copper.

OWNERSHIP OF VALUABLE MINES SETTLED.

H. C. Hitchcock, in company with his mining partner, J. P. Faulk, went to Solomonville last Thursday to settle the dispute between them and opposing parties regarding the ownership of some valuable copper claims on what is known as the "outcrop," below San Carlos, in Graham county. Mr. Hitchcock informs us that everything was amicably settled and that they will at once proceed to work their claims in a systematic manner, and in the near future intend shipping ore as they already have an abundance of shipping ore on the dumps of their different claims.

ANOTHER STRIKE OF GOLD.

Gold strikes are of almost weekly occurrence in the Dripping Springs gold belt. The latest strike was made a few days ago by Jack Clark, on ground three claims removed from the Lawrence & Glissan property. The showing is said to be very good.

LOCAL MINING NEWS.

Louis G. Siebel of the firm of Siebel & Todhunter, brokers, of Cincinnati, Ohio, was a visitor here during the week, in company with Geo. P. Andrews of the Pinal Copper Mining company. Mr. Siebel's firm represents the Woods Investment company of Victor, Colo., and placed a large part of the stock of the Gold Coin mine, now one of the greatest mines in the Cripple Creek district. Mr. Siebel spent several days looking at mines here and formed a favorable opinion of Globe district.

W. B. Cullom returned on Monday from a visit to his mines in the Mazatzis, near Rye, bringing with him some fine specimens of silver ore.

Territorial and General.

Reginald Truman, general manager of the Ray Mines, Limited, returned Wednesday from New York, and went on to Kelvin the following day, says the Florence Tribune. It is understood that while in the east he made arrangements for putting in more complete machinery, which will necessitate the closing down of the mines for several months. It is also reported that a railroad to connect with the Southern Pacific is one of the possibilities of the near future.

G. W. Hull started men to work on a contract in the Jerome claim, one of the good properties located by Mr. Hull during the many years he has spent in Jerome and vicinity, says the correspondent of the Republican. The Jerome is now the property of the King Development company, and is situated over the mountain north of the United Verde. He has a good showing of ore in the Jerome, and is set in the belief that he will soon open up a large body of good ore there. He says that in the spring he will have one hundred, and probably twice that number of men at work in his various properties around the town.

THE LATE NEWS.

Brief Mention of Some Important Occurrences.

DOINGS IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The first speech in opposition to ship subsidy bill in the senate was delivered today by Mr. Clay, (Georgia) one of the minority members of the committee on senate. He is recognized as one of the most vigorous opponents of the bill in the senate, and during nearly two hours he was accorded close attention by senators on both sides of the chamber. Mr. Hanna, who was expected to reply to Mr. Clay's argument, gave him a particularly attentive hearing. In the early part of the session a lively colloquy was precipitated over reference to committee of the oleomargarine bill just passed by the house of representatives. It finally went to the committee on agriculture. This was a victory for the friends of the bill. There was also a sharp debate over the Montana senatorial case, but no action was taken, the matter, by consent, going over temporarily.

IN THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—The debate on the war revenue reduction bill opened in the house today. Payne of New York, chairman of the ways and means committee, spoke in behalf of the majority, and Swanson of Virginia in behalf of the minority. The house adjourned early to permit the hall to be decorated for the exercises in connection with the centennial celebration tomorrow. Before the war reduction bill was taken up a resolution was adopted for the appointment of a special committee of five members to investigate the death of Oscar L. Roost, of Bristol, Pa., who died recently, as the result of having received while on duty at West Point. This course was taken over the head of the military committee, which reported in favor of allowing the war department to conduct the inquiry.

THE TELEGRAPHERS' STRIKE.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Tonight Third Vice President J. M. Barr, superintendent of the operating department of the Santa Fe, notified all agents of the company not to employ any more operators as enough men had been engaged to fill the places vacated by the telegraphers who responded to the strike call. He said:

"At 15 other points on the system we have been hiring new operators since this trouble began. Today I notified our agents not to engage any more."

"The strike is practically over and our business is normal," said President Ripley. "Little delay and some annoyance has been the burden of our trouble. The report that officials of the company are opposed to labor unions is false. We have no quarrel with labor unions. On the contrary, we believe they are good things when properly governed."

A LOSING FIGHT.

EMPORIA, Kan., Dec. 11.—Chairman Newman, of the eastern division of the Santa Fe operators fought gave out the statement that no freight trains are being run or handled through Emporia, which shows a great strike, and shows that the company is making a losing fight. The strike occurred December 8. Cars through Emporia averaged daily before the strike 750; after the strike 460. Cars of stock handled through Emporia, Sunday, December 2, for the Kansas City market, 108; Sunday, December 3, only 13 cars for the same market. Only one car of stock has been received from the Oklahoma division since the strike was called. Nothing on through freight trains running, and they are badly delayed. Forty trains were handled through Emporia on December 6, 44 on the 7th, 18 on the 9th and 17 on the 10th. The situation on the different divisions is practically the same as yesterday, except that we gained in some localities.

CONFLICTING REPORTS.

The El Paso (Texas) Times says: R. T. Lisle of the U. H. local chairman of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, has received information from the headquarters of the order that is of the most encouraging nature. He says that fully 95 percent of the men are out on the Santa Fe's lines and more are expected to follow, and that further a large number of the men the company had brought from the east to take the places of the strikers refused to work when they arrived at their destinations, while others were not operators at all. Mr. Lisle ridicules the idea that the strike is over and says that the men will win.

Pullman Conductor W. S. Stetler, who came in from Kansas City yesterday, tells an exactly opposite story. He was seen by a Times reporter and said:

"The strike is a complete fizzle and the operators are simply whipped to a finish. The men are working at almost every point and the trains are running as smoothly as they ever did. If one did not know it from the papers, it would be impossible to tell that there was a strike."

It is still rumored that the trainmen will go out on the Santa Fe in sympathy with the operators if the latter call on them, but there is nothing definite in this line.

March of the Christmas Children.

It's the march of the Christmas children—Keep time to the laughter and song: They're bound for the Christmas windows—On, but the open-eyed throng! Marvelling, wishing and dreaming: Thrilled to the soul are they: Till the march of the Christmas children Is the finest sight of the day!

It's the march of the Christmas children—Isn't the quickest step sweet? Straight on to the Christmas windows—What a patter of little feet! And the town grows bright with the smile Of watching women and men: And the march of the Christmas children Makes all of us young again!

—Ripley D. Saunders in St. Louis Republic.

Catholic Notice.

On the third Sunday of Advent, the 16th inst., and on the fourth Sunday of Advent, the 23rd inst., mass will be held in the Catholic church of Globe at 10 a. m. Evening devotion at 6 p. m. on Christmas day, first mass at 6 a. m., second mass at 8 a. m. and third mass at 10 a. m.

Advent Time. Advent represents the time which preceded the coming of Christ. The four weeks of Advent before Christmas reminds us of the four thousand years of preparation for the coming of Christ. During that time the Jews of the old Testament, the patriarchs and prophets, were expecting the coming of the Messiah and expressed their longing faith and desire for Him, our Saviour, without whom none can merit heaven.

Why the time of Advent? By Advent the church reminds us of the wretched state of mankind before Christ, showing that the world is without the presence of Christ.

The church, during Advent, wants us to meditate on the miserable state from which Christ delivered mankind, and wishes us to sympathize with the longing and desire of those before Christ for the coming of the Redeemer by faith and desire of the merits of Christ who has now come and is with us. The church wants us to prepare for Christmas communion as the people of the old testament prepared themselves for the birth of Christ.

During Advent the church desires to bring to our mind more vividly the mystery of the incarnation of Christ, His love, His humility, His poverty and mercy, and commands her priests to use the color violet at the altar, to have no decoration, to omit the Gloria and all joyous hymns, prohibits the solemnization of marriage and festive enjoyments.

How ungrateful then to God and disobedient to this church are those who during the season of Advent go to dances and saloons and bad companies, also those who spend that holy season without devotion, without good works and without receiving holy communion at Christmas.

Advent time is of apostolic institution, is a time of prayers and penance.

Congress of Nations.

The Salvation Army held a most unique meeting at their hall on Tuesday night. The affair took the form of an international representative gathering, many of the nations in which the Salvation Army is laboring being represented in costumes and colors; also national flags. Bob Pringle was to be seen in his native country's (Scotch) dress, with kilts, plaid and -clanney cap. There was Ireland to the front with orange and green; Australia had also a representative; Sweden, Germany, France, Italy, etc., each had their places. Uncle Sam was conspicuous with the inevitable stars and stripes; also Miss Columbia with golden crown and flowing robes. Staff Capt. Fynn, the local leader, was attended as a Jack Tar, representing the work of the army among the naval and military men all over the world.

Altogether it was an interesting gathering, and a good crowd was present. The army expects to repeat it at some future date.

Christmas Tree.

The local corps of the Salvation Army will have a Christmas tree this year for the children and a week of special meetings for the holidays.

The Los Angeles Herald of last Sunday contained an illustrated article on some of the big men of the southwest. The following mention is made of a local celebrity. Anton Friberg, of Globe, Arizona, is a native of Sweden, 28 years of age, a naturalized citizen of the United States, an expert miner, and one of the best fellows on earth. He has a combination box in the Globe postoffice seven feet high, and can look squarely into it without tipping his chin. He is exactly six feet ten inches in his stockings, and has to stoop under the telephone wires when he goes to Globe. Tony is employed at the Continental, a copper camp sixteen miles northwest of Globe, and always has a good job when the slope is high enough for him to operate in.

H. C. Hitchcock's display of holiday goods is unusually attractive, and Christmas shoppers should not fail to inspect them.

Fair Arizonans.

The Los Angeles Herald, of last Sunday, under the heading of "Some Buds and Beauties of the Land of Sunshine," publishes photographs and short sketches of fourteen popular young ladies of California and Arizona—the territory being represented by four—Miss Merry, Flagstaff; Miss Arizona Fisher, of Chloride; Miss Frank Kellner, of Phoenix; and Miss Maud Kenyon, of Globe. Of the latter two the Herald says:

Miss Maud B. Kenyon, of Globe, Arizona, was born in Rome, N. Y., twenty-four years ago. She has resided in Gila county, Arizona, for sixteen years.

As an evidence of Miss Kenyon's popularity, it may be mentioned that she was maid of honor to the territorial carnival held in Phoenix last December, and was selected to drive the golden spike on the completion of the Gila Valley, Globe and Northern railroad into Globe.

Miss Kenyon, while universally admitted to be the best looking young lady in Gila county, is far more distinguished for her personal attainments and amiability than for her beauty. She is an ornament in society, a bundle of sunshine in her home, and her many friends in Arizona are justly and enthusiastically proud of her.

Arizona is already engendering an aristocracy composed of the native daughters of the "land of sunshine." An era is just dawning when the girls of Arizona, as in California, proudly boast of their land of nativity. Pretty young women in profusion have taken up their residence in various parts of Arizona recently, but the territory itself can boast of the production of girls of rare beauty, typically western in their characteristics, and with a bearing and manner enhancing their charms. Phoenix is the home of one of the prettiest young women in all Arizona. Miss Frank Kellner, who once gladdened a home in Globe, Ariz. One would judge that was about 18 years ago, and since then she has carried sunshine through a land already noted for a liberal supply of that element.

Miss Kellner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Kellner of Phoenix and Globe. Mr. Kellner is one of the prosperous bankers and merchants of the territory, coming to Globe 25 years ago. He established himself in Phoenix also five years later. Miss Kellner was brought to Phoenix by her parents some time later and her education and accomplishments have been acquired in Arizona institutions solely. Her pretty physiognomy, clothed in a wealth of gold, and her graceful and supple figure, have won for her many complimentary expressions, while her charming manner has placed her in an enviable social position.

A Bright Indian.

Antonio Apache, who has been in the territory for several months enjoying a vacation, paid the SILVER BELT office a call on Tuesday. Antonio is a full blooded Chiricahua Apache, (only a remnant of which tribe remains in Arizona, attached to the Fort Apache agency) and during his recent visit there the head men of the Chiricahua chose Antonio the nantan, or chief of the tribe.

Antonio is one of the finest specimens of the American Indian we have ever seen, standing over six feet in height, and weighing upwards of 200 pounds. Mentally he is no less a giant among his race.

Captured some eighteen years ago, when a mere child, with a band of hostile Chiricahua he was sent to Florida, and ever since his home has been in the east. He attended one of the government schools and later entered the Harvard law school, where he remained two or three years, leaving there to enter the employ of the government as a special agent. He is one of the best educated Indians in the United States, and intends at some future time to complete his law studies. He visited the Paris exposition last June, and talks entertainingly of his trip abroad.

Antonio is at present located in New York city, still drawing pay from the government, and engaged also in other work. Antonio is an example of what may be accomplished in the education of the Indian, but there are extremely few who possess his capacity.

Subscriptions for the promotion stock of the Gila County and Arizona Development company, will be received at the office of Geo. B. Hill.

The Episcopal Entertainment.

The olden time fair and entertainment, for the benefit of the Episcopal building fund, at Odd Fellows' hall, Friday and Saturday nights, was a brilliant and successful affair. The hall was tastefully decorated and the various booths were veritable pictures of beauty. The ladies presiding wore handsome and appropriate costumes which added to the picturesqueness of the fair.

The candy booth was presided over by Miss Kate Morehead, who is visiting here from Kentucky. Her charming southern grace and beauty made her many friends and added to the receipts of the booth. She was ably assisted by Miss Daisy Oldfield and Miss Stoneman.

The Japanese booth was taken care of by Miss Bolton and Mrs. Crandall. The doll booth, which was the most attractive spot for the children, was handled by Mrs. Aaron Edwards and Mrs. Chas. Brown.

The receipts of the fish pond were much enhanced owing to the popularity of Miss Lee.

The postoffice was the center of attraction and many missives worthy of literary mention were exchanged. The wit and brightness of Miss Nellie Kennedy and the tact of Miss Yancey added to the success of this booth.

The elegant supper served by the ladies of St. John's Guild would be difficult to surpass and reflects decided credit upon the culinary art of Globe. Miss Sirch acted as auctioneer and "barker" for Jonah the mystery, and is deserving of credit for his efforts.

The orchestra was composed of Prof. Vincent, Miss Julia Hamm and Miss Walton, and was a treat in itself to all lovers of good music.

"Robin Adair" was sung with fine effect by Mrs. Patton.

"Yankee Doodle," a musical novelty, by Fannie and Ethel Patton, Minor Davidson, Hazel Keegan and Miriam McNeely, was a pleasing feature of the entertainment.

"Gen Bolt," by Mr. Morris, recalled recollections of Trilby.

The Virginia Reel, as it was danced in "ye olden time," was given by twelve of ye men and maidens, and was heartily applauded.

The fun dance by little Hazel Keegan was a symphony of grace and motion and won for this sweet little girl a well deserved encore.

"The Last Rose of Summer," by Miss Josephine Hamm, was well adapted to her sweet voice and demonstrated her musical culture and training.

"I Cannot Sing the Old Song," by Miss Heath, was rendered with touching effect.

"America," in which the audience joined, was sung with a vigor that demonstrated the fact that patriotism still lives.

The programme for Saturday night was one of the best ever given in Globe. The overture, "Welcome," by Miss Julia Hamm, Miss Walton and Prof. Vincent, was exquisitely rendered.

The vocal duet, "Reuben and Rachel," by Miss Heath and Adolph Jacobs, in Quaker costume, was applauded to the echo and two encores were given. The characters were well sustained and Mr. Jacobs, whose immeasurable assurance would cause him to succeed at anything, appeared as much at home on the stage as a fish in high water.

The jig by Mrs. Stokes was O. K. The comedy, "A Perplexing Situation," in which Mr. Millington, who is inclined to be miserly, agrees to give his wife and daughters $25 if they will keep their mouths shut for one day (a mighty hard thing for a woman to do), was brimming with fun and ludicrous incidents and was given in a manner far superior to that of any professional troupe that has visited us. The play was managed by Mrs. Chas. Sirch, and was performed without a break.

Cyrus Noble Byrne, in the character part, evidenced that he has missed his vocation. Mrs. Millington, his wife, was well taken by Miss Heath. Tom Millington by Mr. Wright, Sue Millington by Miss Pendleton, Jessie Millington by Miss Robinson, Lucy Fair by Miss Trevillian, Maud by Miss Yancey, Mrs. Noise by Mrs. Sirch, Alex Wilson by Mr. Oates, Mary by Mr. Bob Merritt, Uncle Eptimus by Mr. Carl, Fritz by Mr. Butler, Health Officer by Tom Trevillian, were all well acted.

Mr. Carl's dialect and makeup indicated the professional and would be hard to beat.

Miss Robinson's acting demonstrated her dramatic ability.

Miss Yancey's refreshing beauty and pleasing manners made her a decided favorite.

Bobby Merritt, having swallowed a paper of pins just before coming on the stage, did exceedingly well under the circumstances.

The play was so popular that by special request it will be repeated next Saturday evening.

Financially the affair was a gratifying success.

The ladies of St. John's Guild will meet at the residence of Mrs. J. J. Keegan, Friday afternoon, Dec. 14, 1900, at 2:30. The treasurer, all committees and the ladies having charge of the play, dinner, booths, decorations, bunting, etc. will please be present, as we are desirous that all bills be presented and accounts closed on that day.

Tonto Happenings.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

A good many Tonto people were hid out in the bushes last week, trying to evade service of summons for jury duty by the deputy sheriff, but Mr. Voris surprised them on the 2nd inst., when he arrived in company of Mr. Ellison from Texas.

Dr. Maisch came down from Pine last Monday, on an urgent call to attend Mrs. Chas. Hosfelt who had been taken suddenly ill. A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hosfelt three weeks ago.

Mr. Holder, the teacher at Angora, passed through here last Wednesday on his return from Globe.

D. D. Sullivan arrived last Thursday and on the following day left for his mining claims on Mount Reno. He made a contract with Mr. Hyde who will do the assessment work on the claims. Bert Cullom also arrived Thursday and went out to his mines on Rye.

The young people of Tonto had a dance last Friday, which lasted until 2 o'clock a. m. It was well attended and everybody had a good time.

Mrs. A. J. Howell and Mrs. G. O. Scott, who left a week ago over Reno Pass for Phoenix, returned Sunday evening.

A letter has been received from Oscar Scott, dated Batanga, P. I., Oct. 30. He appears to be well satisfied with his berth on the U. S. gunboat Yorktown. He says he has been firing a six-inch gun at 1,500 yards range, with good effect. The government is paying all hands with Mexican money, so they get two for one, and can buy as much with one peso as they can with an American dollar. Oscar says there is plenty of fruit to be had by climbing trees for it, and by drinking the milk from the coconuts they were getting fat. A steamer taken by the insurgents in the beginning of the war, was recaptured. Much trouble was experienced in getting her out of the river where the insurgents had taken her for safe keeping. Orders had just been received to go to Manila, where the Yorktown was to coal up, which would take twelve days. Oscar finds his knowledge of Spanish very useful in the Philippines. He sent his best wishes to all his acquaintances in Gila county.

Middleton & Allison make their Christmas announcement in this issue of the BELT. They carry a large and varied stock of holiday goods, which they are offering at very reasonable prices.
